Germans Claim Marked Successes in East But Russ Say Army Is Intact and Teutons Must Keep Sending Reinforcements to Hold Position—New Activity in Dardanelles—Roumania May Not Get Into War—Gerhard Issues Statement Saying U. S. and Germany Had Misunderstood Each Other.

By Associated Press.
Berlin, June 29.—The official statement given out today by the German army headquarters staff announces that to the north of Lemberg the Austro-German forces are now on Russian territory.

London, June 29.—The Teutonic armies in Galicia have made important advances at two points, according to the German official statement.

In one case the Russians, under Grand Duke Nicholas, whom they have been pursuing to the north of Lemberg, have been driven at some points over the Galician border.

In the other, the army of General von Linsingern has forced the Russians back from the Guila Lipa river, upon which they retired from the Dniester region, northward of Halicz.

Recent Russian statements indicate continued retreat in that region. The Germans report engagements in this territory have everywhere resulted in defeat for the Russians, fighting being reported as far north as Tomassow, in Russian Poland, about 50 miles northwest of Lemberg.

It has been questioned by observers on the side of the allies whether the Russians would hold very long the position taken along the Guila Lipa river. It was suggested that their next determined stand for defense would be along the line of the River Bug.

The Russians are beginning to evacuate positions they have held in the Tanew section and along the lower San, the Germans declare.

London, June 29.—A London Times correspondent at Russian army headquarters declares the Russian armies are neither beaten or downhearted.

He says the Austro-German losses are estimated at 380,000 Germans and probably an equal number of Austrians.

He also states the Germans must continue pouring in fresh troops in order to hold their positions, for if they take them away to defend other frontiers the whole edifice of the Austrian defensive will collapse.

London, June 29.—Turkish reports from the Dardanelles claim there has been heavy artillery firing with infantry attacks, which latter, they declare, were repulsed.

It is hinted in London that these attacks may prove to be of more than ordinary interest.

Berlin, via wireless, June 29.—The German imperial chancellor and the German foreign minister returned today from Vienna where they had been in conference with leading statesmen of Austria-Hungary. Both are of the opinion that Roumania will remain neutral.

Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerard has written a newspaper article, in which he says his experiences convinced him that Germany and the United States misunderstood each other.

It was said those whose records have been investigated by the attorney general's department, and against whom action may be taken, include a number of prominent men and interests.

The attorney general made no statement concerning the information on which he will base future action against violators, but it was understood the reports made by secret service men employed by the department contained much enlightening material.

Only about half of the 160 lobbyists registered in accordance with the law, having filed detailed statements of their expenses. It was learned at the secretary of state's office.

The penalty of violation of the lobby law is a fine of from $200 to $5,000, or penitentiary imprisonment of from one to two years or both.

ONE WAY TO SAFETY

Washington, June 29.—The United States government has adopted the practice of notifying the German Admiralty through Ambassador Gerard of the time of the departure of every passenger ship sailing under the American flag, and approximately the hours during which it will pass through the war zone. ZAPATA FORCES MAY VACATE MEXICO CITY

Truce Declared in Order to Prevent Battle Which Might Destroy Mexican Capital—U. S. Secret Service Men Watching Prominent Mexicans in America—Villa Man Says He Is Not Party to Huerta Plot.

By Associated Press.
Galveston, Texas, June 29.—A report that the Zapata government archives had been removed from Mexico City to Cuernavaca, and that trains for the transportation of troops from the capital were being held in readiness, was brought to the headquarters of General Pablo Gonzales by Americans yesterday, according to information reaching the Constitutionalist consul here today.

It was also said that a committee of foreign diplomats was arranging with Zapatistas for the protection of private property during the evacuation of the city.

The dispatch from Vera Cruz added that Gonzales forces continue to engage the Zapata troops in the suburbs of the capital.

Washington, June 29.—Agents of the United States government were today busily engaged, all over the country, watching carefully the movements of prominent Mexicans who have been active in Mexican politics, and also those suspected of such activity, to see that there are no violations of American neutrality.

Possibilities that others may be identified with the so-called Huerta conspiracy intensified interest here. It is even intimated that citizens of one of the European belligerents are involved.

It was also said the Department of Justice had some evidence which seemed to connect General Angeles, Villa's right hand man, with the plot. Angeles, it was said, was to call at the State Department today to deny that he was involved. He announced here today he would deny absolutely that he is implicated in any conspiracy to launch a new revolt.

General Carranza telegraphed his agency here today that further attack on Mexico City was being delayed while General Gonzales was trying to make arrangements to avoid a battle within the city itself.

Washington, June 29.—Rumors of a rupture between Villa and Angeles were set at rest today when the latter, on a visit to General Hugh L. Scott at the War Department, presented a letter from Villa which referred to Angeles as Villa's friend and companion.

INCORRIGIBLE CHILD AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Lucy Snider, 12-year-old child who has been in trouble time after time, and who a few days ago is said to have entered two residences and removed dishes and rings and later tried to dispose of them, again is accused of taking something that did not belong to her and trying to dispose of it.

Monday evening the girl appeared at Withrow's grocery and tried to dispose of some linens belonging to the Welfare Association. Miss Sutton of the Welfare Association, who has tried in vain to induce the child to quit her bad work, has about decided to allow the child to be placed in some institution where she will be given proper attention.

A visit at the child's home Monday evening disclosed that the mother had tied the girl to a chair but she had escaped, and is supposed to have stolen the linens from some place where it had been loaned by the Association.

Humane Officer Gooderl was sent out to take the girl in charge.

Columbus, June 29.—The State bank superintendent issued a call for the condition of all state banks at the close of business June 23.

DEPLORABLE CONDITIONS IN CAPITAL

Washington, June 29.—Reports received at the state department showed conditions at Mexico to be so acutely distressing as to lead officials to regard the situation there as overshad owing in importance the arrest of General Huerta at El Paso. It was admitted that but for the European war the situation in the Mexican capital would be regarded by foreign governments as one demanding drastic relief measures.

According to advices received at the state department, the city is being subjected to a siege under the most aggravated circumstances. A struggle is in progress now and it may continue for a long time, with no chance for the 20,000 foreign residents to make their escape.

The dangers to foreigners with fighting going on between Carranza and Villa forces for possession of the city are coupled with a desperate lack of food and a total inability to establish railway or telegraphic communication with the rest of the world.

Consuls Silliman and Canada telegraphed that a special messenger who left Mexico City on the night of June 23 had arrived at Vera Cruz, bringing the first word in ten days of the situation there. According to his statement the Carranza forces under General Pablo Gonzales were repulsed in their attack on the city. Carranza is now rushing all available reinforcements to the aid of his commander.

Up to the 23rd most of the fighting had taken place in the northern suburbs of Mexico City. It is stated that in these engagements the Carranza forces lost their ammunition and other munitions of war. The majority of the Zapata forces, said to number 25,000, are just outside the city proper, occupying defensive works in front of the Constitutional positions.

Meantime business in Mexico City is absolutely paralyzed. The banks and stores are all closed and what has happened since the 23rd is not known.

BRYAN GUEST OF TEUTONIC SONS

Chicago, June 29.—William J. Bryan was a guest for four hours of the Teutonic Sons of America and made a tentative arrangement to come to Chicago in August and deliver a lecture. Mr. Bryan was scheduled to make an address to the German society last night, but the engagement was canceled because of a disagreement over the topic, Mr. Bryan wishing to make it "Peace" and the Teutonic Sons desiring an expression on American shipments of munitions to the allies. A large delegation of German-Americans greeted him on his arrival. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the last American notes. He said he was glad to be a private citizen again.

VOTING WAS FIVE TO FOUR

Dayton, June 29.—The formation of the new Miami conservancy district was approved by the conservancy court here by a vote of 5 to 4. The immediate effect of the decision is to bring the matter of flood protection for the Miami valley right up to the point where land which must be used in carrying out plans for the protection work will be appraised. The reservoir plan will be used for flood prevention work and the entire plans call for an expenditure of about $15,000,000 in the valley. Nine counties are more or less affected by the decision, Miami, Shelby, Greene, Clark, Montgomery, Warren, Butler, Preble and Hamilton.

TURK FORCES IN TRIPOLI ACTIVE

Rome, June 29.—Although it was officially denied that Italy will participate in the campaign against the Dardanelles, either by land or sea, it seems more than ever certain that there will shortly be a declaration of war. This likelihood was given substance by news from Tripoli that prisoners taken there confessed that the rebels were commanded by Turkish and German officers. Furthermore, emissaries of the sultan have been inciting the natives to a holy war and persuading them to overthrow the Italian rule. It is the general feeling here that in view of these facts, although there has as yet been no break in the Italian-Turkish diplomatic relations, Italy is justified in displaying hostility toward Turkey without a declaration of war.

OPPOSED TO PRIZE COURT PROCEDURE

Washington, June 29.—Publication of the text of the American note sent to Germany on June 24 with regard to the case of the American sailing ship William P. Frye, sunk by a German warship last January, discloses the fact that the controversy has become one regarding the interpretation of the treaty of 1828 between the United States and Prussia. Indirectly, by virtue of certain claims made by the German government as to her right to sink neutral vessels carrying contraband, the correspondence also is coming to have a bearing on the issues involved in the submarine question.

The note made public here shows the United States for the second time taking exception to the German plan of having the Frye case settled in prize court. The United States renews its demand for the payment of indemnity, the amount of which it asserts should be agreed upon in direct negotiations between the two governments. It is made clear in the note that the United States will have nothing to do with any prize court proceedings which the German government may institute in the Frye case. As the owners of the Frye have put their interests entirely in the hands of the state department, it is considered unlikely that they will make any effort to be represented in the first hearing.

The stand of the United States in this case rests wholly upon the provisions of the treaty of 1828, which, as Germany herself admitted in the first exchange of notes on the subject, rendered her liable to pay an indemnity for the destruction of the Frye. Germany having been the first to invoke this treaty as still in force and applying to this issue, the state department is endeavoring to hold her to the ground she has taken. The issue is thus summed up by Secretary Lansing in his latest note: "The real question between the two governments is what reparation must be made for a breach of treaty obligations, and that is not a question which falls within the jurisdiction of a prize court."

Secretary Lansing also dissents from claims put forward by Germany in the note to which his communication is a reply, to the effect that the treaty of 1828 gives either party the right to destroy a vessel belonging to the other party when carrying contraband, if it is not practicable to stop the contraband in any other way. This is the contention which has been regarded here as bearing upon Germany's submarine operations.

WALTER M'HENRY MAKES CONFESSION

Pittsburgh, June 29.—George McHenry, a waiter of Washington, who was brought here in connection with a murderous attack made upon Franklin T. Schneider, candy manufacturer, made a complete confession, according to Captain Homer E. Crooks of the detective department. McHenry, according to the police, admitted that he was with Thomas G. Forney, the Washington attorney and son-in-law of Mr. Schneider, at the time the attack was made. He denied, however, making the attack. Forney is a son of a Linton Mills (O.) farmer. McHenry said Forney had given him a promissory note for $4,000 to "put Schneider out of the way."

JOHN M. SLATON QUITS GEORGIA

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—Ex-Governor John M. Slaton, accompanied by Mrs. Slaton, left for New York, where they will spend some time prior to a trip west. No incident marred the departure of the former governor and Mrs. Slaton. Accompanied by several friends they went quietly to the depot, where their presence was hardly noticed. Several plain clothes men accompanied the party. All troops have been withdrawn from the Slaton country estate, their places being taken by private guards. Shots were exchanged between guards and marauders near the Slaton home. Several people, the officers say, were lurking in the dark near the posts of the sentries thrown about the residence. The sentries approached these people and ordered them to advance. Instead they ran, and when they did not halt at the command, the sentries commenced firing. Three shots were fired by the sentries and six shots were returned by the fugitives, who escaped.

PRESIDENT WILSON IS WATCHING THE DEVELOPMENTS

Windsor, Vt., June 29.—Consideration of international Mexican and Haitian situations broke in on President Wilson's holiday. The president was advised by Secretary of State Lansing of the arrest of Generals Huerta and Orozco on the charge of fomenting another Mexican revolution and violating this nation's neutrality. Indirectly, the president personally had ordered their detention, having issued standing orders when Huerta landed in this country three months ago that he should not be permitted to use this country as a base for revolutionary activity in Mexico and should not be permitted to return to Mexico. It can be stated with authority that the president will take an active personal interest in future developments in Huerta's case. Announcement of the new Mexican policy will, of course, be deferred until the president's return to Washington.

New revolutionary troubles in Haiti were also taken up by the chief executive. He let it be known that he has decided upon a definite policy as to Haiti. It is understood that this government will advise President Sam that constant recurring revolutions have brought Haiti into bankruptcy and that collection and disbursement of Haitian revenues by United States representatives is the most feasible solution, as is now being done in Santo Domingo.

Huerta Shows His Hand

If there existed any doubt as to the absolute untrustworthiness of Huerta, expresident and exdictator of Mexico as a result of his own treachery and treason to Madero, that doubt vanished Sunday when Huerta, together with a few other kindred spirits were arrested and taken from the train just outside of El Paso, Texas.

Huerta and his associates were just about to launch from Juarez a new revolution which had for its object the elevation of Huerta to power as the dictator of Mexico.

Government secret service men have been watching the wily old Mexican for some weeks. Indeed he has been under close surveillance ever since he landed in this country from Spain. Huerta, after having insulted this government and, by his refusal to salute the flag, came near precipitating a war between the United States and Mexico, was surprised when he was not refused permission to land in New York.

Judging from the reports of the government agents who caused his arrest Sunday, he has repaid the kindness and courtesy extended to him by this country in laying plans to still further complicate the relations between this country and Mexico and to add to the disorders in his native land, by planning and organizing a revolution.

Huerta is a dangerous and a costly guest and this nation would be entirely justified in law and morals in dealing severely with him. If he is to be allowed to remain in this country at all he should be made to respect our laws and demean himself in such a manner as not to involve the nation in foreign complications.

Huerta has not dealt fairly with this nation. While accepting the protection of the government and enjoying the privileges which this land offers, he was all the time treacherously scheming to launch a new era of bloodshed and riot in his native land.

It is to be hoped that the federal authorities at El Paso will not be deceived by Huerta and grant him his release without security that he will cause no further trouble.

The Harvest Season

The farmers of Fayette and adjoining counties are into the wheat and hay harvest in earnest. The fine weather of last week enabled them to get the weeds and grass out of the corn fields and then transfer all their energies to the wheat and hay fields. Mowers and binders are whirring and clicking in every direction as the golden grain and the waving grass is cut from the ground and made ready for the thrasher and the hay barn.

The remarkably pleasant, cool breezes are a blessing to men and horses while the rush harvest season is on. It is possible that a hotter sun would cure the grass a little more rapidly and make the corn grow faster, but the brisk winds will cure the grass and give comfort to the folks afield which will compensate for the loss of a few days growth on the corn.

The wheat, considering the long rainy spells and the severe wind storms, is in fairly good shape and the tremendous acreage will come nearer to yielding an average crop all around than some folks believe.

Fayette county is particularly fortunate in regard to the wheat crop. There is comparatively little of the wheat blown down by the winds and very little of it that has not headed out well up to an average crop.

This is the time when the farmers have their hardest work to do. This is the time when they must gather in the fruits of the labor of last fall—it's collection time with the farmers and nature is paying them two or three accounts at once.

A Chance for Suffragettes

The annual report of The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, always interesting because it exhibits the financial transactions of the greatest railroad corporation in this country, if not in the whole world, is doubly interesting this year for the reason that it discloses that nearly one-half of its stock holders are women.

There are some few over ninety-three thousand stock holders and between forty-four thousand and forty-five thousand of these stock holders are women. That is an unusually large proportion of women stockholders for any corporation to have and when it is realized that it is the great Pennsylvania railroad, the best equipped and managed railroad on the continent, we must begin to "sit up and take notice."

What a splendid opportunity exists for the fair sex to give a demonstration of their business ability and furnish an irrefutable argument in favor of equal suffrage, by taking over the control of our pride railroad. Or if they are already in control and are already running things, furnish the public with the evidence of that fact. Perhaps the hand that rocks the cradle is already controlling the "Pennsy."

Poetry For Today

WHAT LOVE CAN DO.

Upon the ashen heart of things
It lays its tender touch of grace;
Again the vanished music rings,
Again the roses ray that face!
It is not much, it is not strong,
But, oh, what love can do,
To turn the sadness into song,
And make the old heart new!

The little room of life was dark,
There was no ray or beam;
Love entered all that silent stark,
And with it came the dream.
It was not much, but all that room
Unto its deepest cells
Burst into sunshine and to bloom
And that's how love works spells!

There was a shadowy way for men,
But one day when they rose
It was a road to heaven again,
Where the morning music blows.
And that was only part and piece
Of the sweet things and the true
That love upon her golden fleece
Of fairy joy can do.

FROM A JULY 4 SPEECH
BY PRESIDENT WILSON.

Every patriotic American is a man who is not niggardly and selfish in the things he needs that make for human liberty and the rights of man, but wants to share it with the whole world. And he is never so proud of the great flag as when it means for other people as well as himself the symbol of liberty and freedom. I would be ashamed of this flag if it ever did anything outside of America that we would not permit it to do inside of America. We stand for the mass of the men, women and children who make up the vitality of every nation.
The world is becoming more complicated every day. Therefore no man ought to be foolish enough to think he understands it, and that is the reason why I am so glad to know there are some simple things in the world. One of those simple things is principle. Honesty is a perfectly simple thing.—Woodrow Wilson.

Dr. Wiley would call us back to the simple life of grinding our flour at home. Does that mean revive the "mortar, pestle, pounder" of our granddaddies?

Public money devoted to vocational training would be well invested if vocational training in the neglected art of swimming were part of the curriculum.

Luke McLuke Says

Nearly every man imagines that every incline is at an angle of forty-five degrees.

A man is always willing to give two for one when he is swapping kisses.

It is none of our business. But there isn't much class to a man who remembers to remove the cigars from his vest pocket before he hugs a girl.

When a man marries a woman who has an independent income he should prepare for a career in which she is always right and he is always wrong.
Any married man can tell you that the supply of excuses is always away ahead of the demand.

About the only racket that resembles a free for all fight between about 200 sparrows is that made by about twenty women who are all gabbing at the same time.

The man who merely gives everybody the benefit of the doubt has a pretty good religion.

Why is it that when a mere chorus girl marries a grocery clerk she is always "a noted actress" and he is always "the scion of a wealthy family?"

The fact that a man has none of the small vices and doesn't smoke, drink, chew or swear doesn't keep him from getting the skein in the paper with a skirt as the skeleton in his closet.

A man knows that he is picking out a good wife even after experience has shown him that he can't even pick out a good canteloupe.

Whether or not a girl knows how to swim usually depends on whether she likes or dislikes the looks of the man who asks her if she would like to learn.

As a rule, an "agriculturist" has as much success at farming as a "journalist" has at newspaper work.

No matter how peaceable a man may be, he always feels like taking a good wallop at the human jellyfish who goes around whining that he isn't appreciated.

The man who is operating a 2,000 glue factory power pipe isn't the worst neighbor you can have on the rear end of a crowded street car. Once in awhile you have hard luck and draw as a side partner a lad who has perfume on his clothes.

SEEDS AND DOLLARS

Seed that is not planted does not grow. Dollars that are not banked do not increase. No farmer is so foolish as to think that a paper bag of watermelon seed, hanging from the rafters, will ever grow until he plants it.

Yet are you not expecting those dollars in that bureau drawer will grow without banking them? Dead seed and dead dollars bring no returns.

THE JULY 4 CHURCH

Historic Building In Which Many Signers Worshipped.

OLD Christ church, the historic and sacred edifice in Philadelphia where three-fourths of the signers of the Declaration of Independence worshipped, commemorates the nation's birthday every year with impressive patriotic and religious services. Representatives of the Lutheran, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches, the religious bodies that were active in the life of Philadelphia when Independence was declared, generally participate in the services.

Last year the services took the form of a prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessing of civil and religious liberty. Addresses were made by Bishop Garland, representing the Episcopal church; the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts of the Presbyterian general assembly and the Rev. Dr. Edwin Heyl Deik of the Lutheran church. The services were conducted by the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, rector of Old Christ church.

The order of service was the one adopted in 1785 by the church to be used every year on the Fourth of July. The service was attended by representatives of President Wilson, Mayor Blankenburg, the Colonial Dames, the Sons of the Revolution and of the Pine Street Presbyterian church, whose pastor, Dr. Duffield, like Dr. White, rector of Old Christ church, was a chaplain of the First Continental congress. The clergy of the diocese in their vestments, with the other guests, met in the Neighborhood House and proceeded into the church while the historic pews where knelt the churchmen and patriots of the Continental congress. Bishop Garland, at the conclusion of his address, read the following poem, written by him for the occasion:

INDEPENDENCE DAY.
Lord, in thy house this sacred day
We kneel where patriots knelt to pray;
They pledged anew their faith in thee,
Then took up arms for liberty.

Not in their strength, but in thy might,
They trusted to defend the right,
And thou didst guide them by thy hand
And 'established firm our fatherland.

God of the patriots, be our guide;
Protect this land for which they died;
Give us our fathers' faith in thee
To live for truth and liberty.

JURY IS IMPANELED TO TRY DENNER ON MURDER CHARGE

Twelve Men Satisfactory to Both Sides Selected Just Before Noon Today and Attorney C. A. Reid Outlines One of Most Shocking Crimes in County's History—Court Room Crowded—Brother Identifies Notes Which John Wrote to Him in Jail.

It was nearly noon and 45 of the 50 new veniremen had been examined before a jury was obtained in the Denner murder case. A number of those passed for cause were removed on preemptory challenge.

When court was resumed after dinner Attorney C. A. Reid, for the state, reviewed the case against the accused and most of his statements are what has already been given to the public. He stated that the evidence would show that John Denner fired the two shots which killed John Bainter, and that a considerable sum of money had been taken from the slain man by the man who fired the fatal shot.

At press time Jesse Denner was on the stand and had identified notes which passed between himself and John Denner in jail. These notes are said to contain sensational evidence bearing heavily upon the case. John Denner was extremely nervous while the notes were being examined.

The John Denner murder case was resumed Tuesday morning, with the work of filling up the jury box dragging slowly forward, as man after man of the new venire of 50 men was examined and dismissed for cause.

A large number of spectators thronged the court room, all anxious to see and hear everything said and done. The defendant occupied his accustomed place near the Court Bailiff's desk, with Sheriff Jones keeping near him.

The 50 talesmen drawn from the jury wheel Monday afternoon reported for duty at nine o'clock Tuesday morning, and the veniremen chosen were as follows:

Lewis Moore, Green; Ora A. Dower, 2nd ward; H. E. Edwards, 1st ward; A. L. Smith, Paint; Elton Marine, Union; Elmer Highland, Union; W. W. Rouston, Jefferson; Scott McKinney, Wayne; Charles Glaze, Marion; Horace Ireland, 4th ward; Gabe Smith, Jefferson; H. W. Bussert, Paint; R. S. Ramsay, Paint; J. H. Hicks, 4th ward; Noah Baugh, 2nd ward; Peter Hearn, 4th ward; C. P. Minton, Perry; John E. Van Pelt, Concord; Elmer E. Burnett, 2nd ward; Harry Allen, Jasper; J. D. Fulton, Madison; R. E. Eckel, Madison; Clinton Butters, Jasper; J. M. Baker, 4th ward; C. Walston, Madison; George Bryan, 1st ward; Harry D. Taylor, Union; S. F. Snider, Union; John Raben, Concord; Allie M. Anderson, 2nd ward; Joseph Gillespie, 3rd ward; Harry Hays, 1st ward; James Dunn, 3rd ward; O. J. Waddell, Concord; C. M. Griffith, 1st ward; Alvin Ellis, Perry; Elmer Ray, Jefferson; G. P. Erick, Jefferson; A. L. French, Jefferson; W. A. Tharp, 3rd ward; Louis D. Saxton, 3rd ward; Guy L. Carr, Jefferson; E. J. Light, 3rd ward; Benjamin Graves, Union; Adam P. Kinzer, 3rd ward; Harry Baughn, 1st ward; Austin Saunders, 1st ward; L. N. Rowe, 4th ward; Fielding Latham, Jefferson; Maywood Horney, Jefferson.

Subpoenas have been issued by the court for Mrs. David Alley, confined in the Miami county jail and for Charles Alley, confined in the Xenia workhouse, to appear and testify in behalf of the state. The two witnesses will appear under guard, and their testimony is expected to be damaging to the defendant.

David Alley, who also is said to be wanted by the state, recently broke out of the Piqua jail and so far as is known is still at large. Shortly before the Denners were arrested and the body of John Bainter unearthed from its secret grave under the barn near the Denner cars on the David Dore farm east of this city, David and Charles Alley were arrested in Piqua and David id Alley is said to have communicated the intelligence to the police that John Denner killed a man near this city. This was communicated to the police of this city, it is claimed, and about that time the widow of Hoggy Bainter appeared before the police and filed charges against her brothers, accusing them of the crime.

UNSUCCESSFUL BURGLARS BREAK INTO TWO PLACES

Pennsylvania Station and Fayette County Canning Plant Entered—Car Broken Into at Jeffersonville

Prying open a window on the west side of the local Pennsylvania railroad station, burglars Monday night gained access to the men's waiting room. A chewing gum slot machine, torn from the wall, was found Monday morning in the railroad yards, battered but unripped. An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the ticket office.

An inventory taken by Agent Linton Monday morning showed that nothing had been taken.

The burglars' first act on entering the station was to loosen from the wall a chewing gum slot machine, the property of the railroad company, containing gum and several dollars in pennies. The machine was found in a battered condition under a box car in the railroad yards Monday morning.

Its money compartment was intact, however, and none of the gum had been taken.

After dislodging the slot machine it appears that the burglars next directed their attention toward the ticket office window. They succeeded in forcing the iron grating to the outside, and the frame of the thick glass window inside bore evidence of an effort to "jimmy" it. An examination of the inside of the ticket office indicated that it was not entered and it is probable that the intruders were frightened away when in the act of prying the office window.

Canning Factory Entered. Sometime during Monday night an attempt was made to burglarize the Fayette Canning Company plant and it is not unlikely that the would-be burglars were the same as those that entered the Pennsylvania railroad station, it being but a short distance along the railroad between the places.

Entrance here was gained by cutting a pane of glass from a window in the rear of the building. Again the men were unsuccessful. A small box of pens and a bottle of ink was the extent of their haul.

BOX CAR ENTERED AT JEFFERSONVILLE

A box car in a D. T. & I. freight train was broken into while standing on a siding at Jeffersonville Monday night and a box of plug tobacco, three sacks of scrap tobacco, one can of tomatoes and two or three pounds of crackers stolen.

The man is believed to have been a hobo picked up by the marshal at Jeffersonville Monday evening. This man had been arrested for loitering about the railroad and was allowed to go free late Monday night with an order to "get out of town."

Later the burglary was discovered and the empty tomato can was found near where the 'bo had been picked up. His direction had been noted and the officials immediately began the process of trailing him. will vnd bread, pies, cake, cookies,

TRACTOR FLY WHEEL CAUSES UGLY INJURIES

Mr. Elmer McCune, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCune, residing on the Humphrey Jones farm east of this city, who suffered a badly fractured leg Monday afternoon when the fly-wheel of a monster tractor gasoline engine flew to pieces, is in the Fayette Hospital, and it may be two or three months before he will be able to resume work.

Mr. McCune was running the engine and five binders attached to the engine were being operated in one of the big wheat fields on the Jones farm. The wheel was revolving at lightning speed when the break occurred, with the result that a large section, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. McCune and fractured one leg in two places between the knee and ankle. No others were injured, although it is said another man narrowly escaped being struck by one of the ragged pieces of iron.

Mr. McCune was brought to this city and is now resting fairly easy, and the physicians in charge believe they can save the badly lacerated and fractured limb.

ROAD NOW CLOSED TO ALL TRAFFIC

The Jeffersonville pike for more than one mile north of this city is closed to all traffic, and will remain closed for several weeks until the paving can be completed.

Contractors Mark and Vangundy have a force of men employed on the road and expect to lay the first brick sometime next week, the weather remaining favorable.

Since the road has been closed it is necessary for those coming into the city from the Prairie and Jeffersonville pikes to detour at the Culpepper road, go east one mile to the Lewis pike and into the city, or go west on the Culpepper road and thence south to the Jamestown pike and into town through Millwood.

Considerable inconvenience will result until the road is thrown open to traffic.

NO MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

The regular meeting of the County Board of Education, announced for one o'clock Tuesday, proved a failure.

David Long and W. W. Wilson were the only members appearing.

WILL DEDICATE NEW CHURCH JULY FOURTH

The new Methodist Protestant church at Mt. Olive has been completed and will be formally dedicated Sunday, July 4th, with Dr. C. H. Beck, of Columbus, delivering the dedicatory sermon at 10:30 a. m.

At 2:30 p. m. Rev. M. R. Stover, President of the Conference, will speak, and at 7:00 p. m. Dr. Beck will deliver another address.

Arrangements have been made for an all day meeting and a basket dinner will be a feature of the all day session.

PECULIAR OCCUPATIONS.

Those of the Bacteriologist, Anthropologist and Plant Doctor.

What man leads the most peculiar modern life? The question is not an easy one to answer offhand, but it is doubtful if any one spends his days in a more strange manner than the bacteriologist. Day after day, week after week, year after year he works in the laboratory, into which only the privileged may enter, studying the microbes of disease. He may not open the window lest he infect the whole neighborhood with typhoid or diphtheria, or any other diseases with which he is at close quarters all day. He encourages bacteria to multiply, and then through a microscope, or sometimes with the naked eye, he watches how they spend their time, in order that he may combat their deadly influence.

While the bacteriologist looks forward, the anthropologist looks backward. He is the man who dashes off to any place when he hears a deep excavation is being made, and hopes always that he will find a skeleton, and especially a skull, for he is never so happy as when he unearths human relics going back centuries.

The plant doctor is akin to the bacteriologist, for, like the latter, he spends much of his time in the laboratory, not studying the enemies of the human world, but the enemies of the plant world, and he is very proud when, after diagnosing and treating the various ailments of flowers, he runs across, say, the enemy of a rose, and finds how it may be kept from doing harm.—London Tit-Bits.

A sign of returning prosperity is found in the 100 per cent jump in the price of seats on the New York Stock Exchange, $70,000 as against about half that less than a year ago.

HUMANE OFFICER MAKES RESPONSE TO WRIT FILED

Claims Custody of Alien Child Is Lawful and That Applicant Is Without Authority to Remove Child From Custody of Humane Society.

In the legal battle now under way for the possession of Vasil Mange, an alien child of 14 years, formerly employed at the Cozy Corner and now in possession of Miss Grace Ogle, answer has been made by Humane Officer Gooderl to the proceedings instituted by Mrs. Mary Charuhaus, of Piqua, O., for possession of the child.

In his answer Officer Gooderl, represented by Attorney John Logan, claims that the child is an alien whose parents live in the Kingdom of Greece; that she has been in the custody of Peter Brown for some time, and that he compelled her to unlawfully perform the labor and service of a clerk in his place of business; perform the labor of a menial in his household, neglecting to provide her with sufficient food, or proper clothing, necessary rest, depriving her of the opportunity to attend school, and that she was taken in charge by the Humane Officer, and notice given that the Society would apply for an order of guardianship, on June 1.

Respondent further claims that of Athens, were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jefferson, in Blomingsburg, the first of the week.

MAY BEGIN WORK ON ROAD IN 30 DAYS

If present plans do not fail the Hillsboro to Chillicothe traction line will be started within thirty days. It is expected that the work of grading will be launched within that period, and that the total cost of the road will be approximately $137,000, although this may be materially increased before the road is completed.

Some changes in route may be made, it is hinted, but whether these changes will eliminate any of the villages previously touched is not known.

ICELAND'S EIDER FARMS.

How the Ducks Are Guarded and Robbed of Their Down.

The down of the eider duck is more highly esteemed and brings a higher price than any other down. In Iceland and the Vestmannaeyjar islands, where the duck nests, it is rigidly protected by law and by public sentiment.

These ducks make their nests of down from their own breasts. They pluck it out with their bills and form it into a circular mound which has the property of retaining heat to an extraordinary degree. If this down be removed the duck supplies a second and even a third lot from the same source.

The eider farms in Iceland are frequently situated on little islands off the coast, covered with low hummocks. To protect the brooding ducks from the elements the Icelanders construct small shelters of rough stones. On these farms, it is said, the ducks become so tame that any one with whom they are familiar may handle them without frightening them.

Separate buildings on the Icelandic eider farms are devoted to the cleaning of the product. Down clings tenaciously to anything on which it is thrown, a circumstance that is utilized in cleaning it. There are a number of frames of oblong shape, and along these numbers of strings are stretched loosely. The down is cast on these near one end, and a piece of wood is drawn rapidly backward and forward over the other end. The down clings to the strings, but all impurities, such as grass and seaweed, fall to the ground.—Every Week.

A Ludicrous Experiment.

Holmes was one of the many eminent men who have attempted to solve the riddle of the universe. In his case the result was ludicrous. From the sublime thoughts that came to him while under the influence of chloroform he thought he might arrive at some solution. Placing himself in his armchair, with pen, ink and paper at hand, he inhaled the anaesthetic. As drowsiness stole over him the nature of things seemed revealed. By a vigorous effort he seized his pen and wrote—he knew not what, for before he had finished he fell back unconscious. When he recovered he turned with trembling anxiety to the sheet of paper, on which, written in scrawling characters, but quite legible he found the awful revelation. "A strong smell of turpentine pervades the whole!"—Exchange.

REFORMING

RIVER BUG

London, June 29.—The Teutonic allies have crossed the Dniester river. This means that the five days' desperate rear guard action by the Russians has ended in their retirement. However, the stubborn resistance of this flank of the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, has enabled him to reform his lines along the river Bug.

Berlin reports the fall of the Galician town of Halicz.

The river San now takes the place of the Dniester as the scene of a sanguinary battle in the Russian effort to prevent the investment of Warsaw. Petrograd admits the retirement of the Russians to the river Gnilla Lipa, which is some eighty miles from the frontier and falls into the Dniester at Halicz, but military experts do not expect heavy fighting along that river. They express the opinion that the serious battle probably will occur along the Zlota Lipa river, which runs parallel to the Gnilla Lipa farther eastward, where the Russians would benefit by the railroad with which the Tarnopol line connects.

The reorganized Russian cabinet has returned to Petrograd after a field conference with the emperor and Grand Duke Nicholas. The Russian press devotes considerable attention to the reconstruction of the cabinet, the convocation of the duma and the mobilization of industry for war purposes.

General Polivanoff, who has been designated as minister of war, was assistant minister of war during the reorganization of the army following the Russo-Japanese war.

On the western front the only important actions, according to the brief French report, consisted in the repulse of German attacks on the Calonne trench and near Mezeral. On the other hand, Berlin claims that the French attacks at all points were repulsed.

The French bark Dumfrieshire, of 2565 tons gross, which sailed from San Francisco Jan. 22 for Dublin with a cargo of barley, was sunk by a German submarine. The crew was landed at Milfordhaven, Wales. The British steamship Indralof, of 2,640 tons gross, was sunk by a German submarine at a point southwest of Tuskar, Ireland. The crew was saved.

NEW HOME OFFICE BUILDING OF THE ASSOCIATION, PORT HURON, MICH.

ON June 18 the city of Port Huron, Mich., officially welcomed home Miss Bina M. West, supreme commander of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, in recognition of her remarkably efficient work for the association. The reception was in charge of Mayor Black and the city commission and was participated in by all the societies, clubs and business organizations of Port Huron. To quote the resolution of the city commission, it was a remarkable tribute to "Miss West, able worker for fraternity and humanity."

The Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees gives its protection and fraternal interest to white women of good moral character. It is nonpolitical and nonsectarian, and dispenses its fraternity in fifty-five states and provinces.

The protection of the association can be secured for whole life, and whole life combined with disability benefits; last illness and burial benefits; also sick benefits. The rates are scientifically graded, and no member pays more than the cost of her own protection. When it is known that Miss West has, with her own hand, signed away over $12,000,000, an estimate can be formed of what this association has already done toward mitigating the dread ordeal incident to death.

Every year finds this association progressing, but the past four years have recorded its greatest advancement. Women, by securing fraternal protection, are freer to seek out new fields of endeavor and become more independent and capable.

A woman's convention without one word of dissent is rather an unusual thing. This was the experience, however, of the recent eighth quadrennial convention of the association in New York. Every session was a model of business ability and parliamentary procedure, and plans were laid for the present quadrennial term which were aimed to meet the great and growing work of its 187,000 women.

Many important features were placed before the convention for decision, one being the changing of the name from the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World to the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees.

Another important step taken was the acceptance of plans for a handsome new home office at Port Huron, Mich. This will be a large, magnificent two story white stone building on the main street of the home city of the order, where the supreme commander, Miss B. M. West, started her project twenty-three years ago. To give the reader an idea of how this society has progressed it will be of interest to know that Miss West started out with a $150 debt, no members and unknown, to organize what today is meeting the needs of 187,000 women in the matter of home protection through fraternal insurance. Miss West has been a leader beloved and adored by her members, and as an insignia of their esteem the convention endeavored to prevail on her to accept the well earned salary of $10,000 a year for the next term. In a masterful address she declined, stating that the weal of the association was uppermost in her mind, not the remuneration.

Steps were taken at this meeting of representative women to endow a state hospital service in every state, Ohio, Illinois and Michigan already having their service in satisfactory use. By this philanthropy every member requiring expert medical attention may have it free of cost to herself.

Addresses were given by Mr. Miles M. Dawson, fraternal insurance actuary of New York city, and Mr. James V. Barry, Michigan insurance commissioner, congratulated the association on the signal success it has attained. "Your association," said Mr. Dawson, "is the first woman's benefit society in the United States to be established on a sound basis, and through the foresight of your peerless leader, Miss West, you are the largest society of your kind in the world. I congratulate you."

THE ARREST OF

IS EXPECTED

Washington, June 29.—The administration has determined that American territory shall no longer be used as a base for revolutionary expeditions in Mexico. This, it became known officially, led to the arrest of General Victoriano Huerta and General Pascual Orozco at El Paso, and forms the ground for strict surveillance now being maintained by agents of the department of justice on Generals Felix Diaz, Mondragon, Blanquet and Felipe Angeles, and other Mexicans of prominence now living in the United States.

Assistant Attorney General Warren, conferred with Secretary of State Lansing, after which the intention of the government to prosecute vigorously all violations of neutrality laws, irrespective of the prominence of the individuals or their affiliations, was revealed.

According to information thus far gathered, there are at least four separate and distinct groups apart from the Villa and Carranza supporters in the United States, who are active politically in the Mexican situation. Whenever such activity shall reach the point of setting on foot a military expedition from the United States, arrests will follow.

Officials of the department of justice expressed surprise that Huerta and Orozco had been released on bond at El Paso and let it be known that they had ordered their agents to maintain a strict watch while the two generals were at liberty. After looking over the evidence that has accumulated, officials were inclined to the opinion that Huerta and his friends laid careful plans for a coup which was to be staged somewhere in northwestern Mexico, possibly in the next few days.

ISONZO PASSAGE

Rome, June 29.—The war office issued a detailed account of the latest engagements on the whole front, where, it is said, the Italians are maintaining their gains and steadily adding to them. The account says that in the Piava sector they accomplished prodigies of valor, the fighting there being of the bloodiest nature. The passage of the Isonzo, near Sagrado and Gorizia, was made under a deadly artillery fire. In some places Italian and Austrian trenches are so close together, the account says, that the opposing troops are within speaking distance.

CORNELL IS VICTORIOUS

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 29.—Cornell won the four mile varsity race of the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson by a heartbeat, the tick of a watch. Courage and endurance and flawless form carried Courtney's eight over the finish line the half of a boat's length ahead of the men from Leland Stanford. Syracuse was a splendid third, a length back of the Californians. Columbia, outclassed from the start, was in fourth place, a length ahead of Pennsylvania. The official time of the race was as follows: Cornell, 20:35 3-5; Stanford, 20:37 4-5; Columbia, 21 minutes.

Our Vacant Public Lands.

Persons who have gained the impression that the United States is becoming thickly settled, and that pioneering possibilities are ended, may be surprised to learn that there yet remain in the United States upward of 300,000,000 acres of vacant public lands, to say nothing of an even greater unoccupied area in Alaska, where the government is planning a $35,000,000 railway, 1,000 miles in length, which will do for the big peninsula what the transcontinental railroads have done for our own West.—Christian Herald.

Rifles of the Armies.

Each army now fighting in Europe uses a rifle different from that used by each of the others. The Russians have the longest rifle, the French the longest bayonet, while the Austrians use the heaviest bullet. The rifles with the largest calibers are those of the French and the Austrians. The German rifle attains the greatest muzzle velocity. The British have the shortest rifle, but with the bayonet added the weapon is longer than the rifle and bayonet of the Belgians and Austrians.

The gaming spirit behind the love of baseball is evidenced by the varying popularity of teams. The victory may be mere accident and the losing team play the best ever; but, no matter, glory lies in winning.

Baptism of Fire Greeted Mr. Harry Mestayer's Entrance In Motion Picture Plays

[Harry Mestayer is one of the most prominent actors on the American stage. He has assumed leading roles in many important stage productions and comes from a line of theatrical people. He has written herewith his experiences as a leading man in the Selig Red Seal play, "The Millionaire Baby."]

By HARRY MESTAYER.
"Two years ago if anyone had approached me with a contract to appear in motion pictures I would have turned down the offer. And yet, like many other actors, I have seen the light. The change of heart was not compulsory, for I came to realize that in motion pictures of higher class the conscientious actor has as great an opportunity for artistic work as on the spoken stage. I considered at some length, too, before I affiliated permanently with any motion picture concern, and I chose the Selig Polyscope company because of the enviable reputation attained by the Selig spectacular productions and the artistic environments made possible by the careful supervision of Mr. William N. Selig.

"When I started to work in 'The Millionaire Baby' in the Chicago studios of the Selig Polyscope company I was also appearing in the lead in a dramatic production on the speaking stage at one of the leading theaters in that city. This placed me under quite a strain and all I did for several weeks was work and sleep—and very little of the latter. I was at the studio every morning at 8:30 and worked steadily until 5 or 5:30 in the afternoon. Then I rushed downtown and, after a rather hurried supper, sped to the theater in time to appear on the stage at 8:15.

"It was quite an experience to be working in two characters which were themselves so different and which were presented through such widely different mediums, and this novelty relieved the monotony of such a steady grind.

"I will try to tell you some of the interesting things which occurred during the filming of the big scenes for 'The Millionaire Baby.' The first one that comes to my mind, and one which I will remember for a long, long time, was a fire scene in which I was supposed to rescue another actor, who was playing the part of my employer, from a burning building. Our director tried using smokepots, but these did not give the realistic effect which he desired, so he determined that the shack which had been erected in the large yard of the studio would have to be burned and that the two of us who were to appear in the scene would have to undertake what is termed by the players 'a stunt.' In other words, we would have to run the risk of being injured for the sake of realism.

"The other player was placed in the shack and the fire started. The 'business' of my part called for my rushing into the building and carrying the other man out through the smoke and flames and 'off' the scene. Oil was sprinkled on various parts of the shack, but not around the door through which we were to exit while I was doing the 'rescue.' All appeared to be going nicely as I made my way past the camera and started moment we began work. It was this perfect team work in the many trying scenes that gave the film the finished effect which I am sure will prove a delight to audiences wherever it is shown. I have nothing but praise for all the players and the director and, above all, for William N. Selig, the man who is behind the many splendid productions presented by his company, and whose orders to his directors are: 'Make a picture regardless of cost and make one that they will remember.'

Good Fireworks Effect.
A pretty effect with fireworks is given when two men armed with roman candles stand widely apart, making the two legs of a triangle whose apex is formed by the fire balls meeting at the height of their flight.

Here's a Patriotic Cake.
One cupful of butter, two cupfuls of granulated sugar, one cupful of milk, three and one-half cupfuls of flour, three level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, whites of six eggs. Sift the flour and baking powder together three times. Add the milk and, last, the eggs; flavor to taste. Divide the batter into two equal portions. To one portion add a few drops of pink fruit coloring. Bake in four layers. Put together with a white icing; ice in white and decorate with small red and blue candles made to form the dates 1776 1915.

The report of the department of agriculture that the farms of the United States produced $10,000,000,000 in crops in 1914 sheds no light on the net farming income. One reason is because value is laid twice or more upon the same product—as the crops fed to animals first, then the value of the animals raised on the crops. Sales of all kinds reached nearly $6,000,000,000, and out of that was paid all the expenses, an unknowable sum. The sales averaged $139 a head for the rural population, and that means something in estimating progress in net values. The gross farm income in 1914 was greater than in 1913 by $1,500,000,000.

The allies in the European war are in the way to supplant the adage, "Silver, more silver and still more silver."

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

PALACE.

Hugh C. Weir, Washington C. H. author and playwright now connected with the Universal Film Corporation, is the writer of a play entitled "The Adventure of the Yellow Curl Papers" to be shown at the Palace Friday. This is one of several first class plays written by Weir since he joined the Universal people not long ago, and is produced in two reels.

Violet Mersereau and William Garwood are the leads.

Other features of the Palace bill this week follow:

Tuesday—"Life's Shop Window," featuring Clare Whitney and Stuart Holmes. This is one of the Palace's big treats of the week.

Wednesday—"Mavis of the Glen," a strong three-reel picture of Universal make, starred by Robert Leonard and Ella Hall.

Thursday—"The Ladder of Fortune," with Ben Watson and Dorothy Phillips.

Saturday—"War of the Wild," a startling feature with Wellington Playter and Marie Walcamp.

AIRDOME.

"The Whirling Disc" is a feature for Tuesday at the Airdome. This is a fancy Gold Seal product with Chlo Madison and Joe King.

Winsome little Vivien Rich will be seen at the Airdome Thursday in "The Heart of Gold," the sort of play that has made this little leading lady a favorite.

The Airdome announces a good five cent program for the remainder of the week.

COLONIAL.

"Captain Macklin," a picturization of Richard Harding Davis novel of that name, is the Colonial's feature for Tuesday. It is one of the Mutual masterpieces.

"Blue Blood and Yellow" is the colorful title of the Wednesday installment of the increasingly interesting "Who Pays?" series, with Ruth Roland and Henry King.

Robert Edson, famous star of the footlights, will be seen at the Colonial in a gorgeously produced Thomas Ince feature Thursday, entitled "On the Night Stage." Several stars will be noted in the cast.

Funny Charlie Chaplin will be here Saturday in one of his funniest, "The Champion." This picture is one of those on which Chaplin's reputation is based.

WONDERLAND.

Happy, vivacious Marguerite Clark who sprung a sensation in Washington photoplay circles a few months ago in her initial appearance at the Wonderland, will be seen again at this theater in "The Crucible," a first rank Daniel Frohman production, Wednesday evening. Mark Lee Luther is the author of the play, which was especially constructed for this famous, diminutive star of the legitimate stage.

Lois Wener, another favorite of thousands of audiences, is the star in "False Colors," the Wonderland bill for Thursday night.

The Elaine picture Tuesday is another of Alfred Henry Lewis' unusual Chinatown creations.

BURKE BUYS HARSHA MONUMENT CONCERN

The Harsha Monument Works, owned and operated by the late J. P. Harsha, and established by him some 20 years ago, was purchased Tuesday by Mr. P. J. Burke Jr. This shop, which is located on East Market street, will be dismantled immediately.

It is Mr. Burke's intention to combine the Harsha shop with the one now operated by him on the corner of Fayette and East streets, which will give Mr. Burke one of the largest monument works in Ohio and a very large stock of monuments, markers, etc.

Four years ago Mr. Burke purchased the monument business of his father, P. J. Burke Sr., who was established in the monument business in this city for forty-three years, occupying one building on East street for forty years. At the time this deal was made Mr. P. J. Burke Jr. was conducting a monument shop in Wellston, Ohio, where he had been established for several years, and which was later combined with the shop here.

Mr. Burke has one of the best equipments, being capable of handling stone as heavy as the railroads will accept for transportation, and is supplied with large derricks, cranes, hoists and everything needed from a crow-bar to a heavy wire cable. Finished work has been placed in cemeteries as far west as Chicago, Ill and as far east as Grey, Maine. There is hardly a cemetery in central or southern Ohio that does not contain some of their work.

D. T. & I. HAS TAKEN MAMMOTH CONTRACT

The D. T. & I. Railroad Company has taken a contract for the transportation of gravel, stone and road building material from the great Lima quarries, to be used in the construction of about ten miles of up to date pike between Sedalia and London.

The hauling will begin this week. It is expected, and the material will occupy about 1,450 carloads in all. It is to be brought from Lima to Jeffersonville over the main line and conveyed from there to Sedalia over the Grasshopper.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

There will be two patriotic services next Sunday. A patriotic service in the morning and a young people's service in the evening. The pastor is preparing special sermons for both occasions, and there will be special musical numbers adapted to each of these services.

The Priscilla Bible class will hold their monthly meeting Wednesday evening, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Z. T. Johnson on N. North street.

Mr. H. E. Willis and Miss Stella Coder were married by the pastor Saturday afternoon. These young people have the best wishes of their many friends.

The topic for the mid-week meeting, Thursday evening, is "Why be Baptized?" Leader, Mrs. Maude Evans.

Miss Katherine Williams, teacher of the Young Men's Bible Class is giving a garden party to the members of her class and the Loyal Daughters Class, Wednesday evening.

The Loyal Daughters will hold a patriotic service at the church Friday evening. A silver offering will be taken.

READY TO LAY BASE ON WASHINGTON AVE

The contractor in charge of the Washington avenue paving job is now ready to begin laying the concrete base on that street, and just as rapidly as possible will follow up the concrete work with the brick, completing the street, insofar as possible, right behind the steam shovel.

While the work has been under way the progress made has been pleasing to those residing on that street, and all are anxiously awaiting the time when the completed street will be thrown open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Summers and daughter Kathryn of Bainbridge, Mr. and Mrs. David Summers, Miss Fannie Summers, of Bowersville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Summers of this city.

The scope of the Bryan peace treaties, which are similar, is indicated in article 1 of the British treaty signed in September, 1914, as follows:

"The high contracting parties agree that all disputes between them, of every nature whatsoever, other than disputes the settlement of which is provided for and in fact achieved under existing agreements between the high contracting parties, shall, when diplomatic methods of adjustment have failed, be referred for investigation and report to a permanent international commission, to be constituted in the manner prescribed in the next succeeding article, and they agree not to declare war or begin hostilities during such investigation and before the report is submitted."

The permanent international commission provided for in this article shall be composed of five members, each government to designate two, only one of these two to be of its own nationality. The fifth member is to be chosen by common consent of the governments or by the four commissioners or under article 45 of The Hague convention and shall not be of the nationality of either party to the treaty.

The contracting parties reserve liberty of action upon the report of the commission.

The national census reports a million farms, operated by owners, mortgaged for $1,750,000,000. A third of these mortgaged farms are in four states—Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Missouri. Those in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Kansas and Nebraska, added to the above, constitute considerably over half of the total. These are almost wholly investment loans, with a wide margin of security, the mortgage seldom exceeding 50 or, at most, 60 per cent of the value of the property. They are in well proved, prosperous agricultural territory, and investors readily take them at a moderate rate of interest.

But nearly two-fifths of all the farms of the country are operated by tenants; in the south more than half. An enterprising tenant usually wishes to buy the farm he works, paying down about a quarter of the purchase price. If he is capable he should be encouraged to buy. There is no doubt a field for the extension of farm credits to those who are not in a position to compete in the investment market.

People who speak of the smallness of our standing army forget the fact that it could be increased more rapidly by men who already know how to shoot and to live in the open than the forces of any European country. The present British army has been trebled in size during the progress of the war, and most of the recruits are men who never before saw a gun except in a shop window or in a moving picture.

Immortal Animals.

Some of the lower animals are immortal, having neither birth nor death. The condition was never more clearly or scientifically expressed than by S. T. Coleridge in his "Biographia Literaria" in a footnote to chapter iv on Wordsworth's "Lyrical Ballads" where he says:

"There is a sort of minor immortal among the animalcula infusoria which has not naturally either birth or death, absolute beginning or absolute end, for at a certain period a small point appears on its back, which deepens as lengthens till the creature divides in two, and the same process recommences in each of the halves now become integral."
